

TRUE or FALSE ???

Directions: The sentences below are all about mollusks. Some of them are true and some of them are false. Read the sentences then fill in the happy face if it is true, and the sad face if it is false.

-
1. Some mollusks eat by filtering the water.
 2. Bivalves have only one piece to their shell.
 3. If you find a mollusk, throw him as far as you can back in the ocean to save him.
 4. Mollusks can live underwater in the sand or mud.
 5. Gastropods move around on a foot.
 6. The snail can leave the shell and go back in later.
 7. One mollusk can not eat another mollusk.
 8. Conservation of mollusks means we can take as many live shells home as we want to.
 9. Even though a hermit crab is not a mollusk, it will find an empty shell to keep safe.
 10. A squid is a different type of mollusk.